

Dealstreet

VERTICES PARTNERS, INDUSLAW, NISHITH DESAI, DSK LEGAL LEAD ON TEACHMINT'S $16.5 MN FUNDRAISE

Teachment is a Bengaluru-based startup which enables teachers to digitise their classrooms.

Teachment

Teachment

Bar & Bench

Published on : 19 May, 2021 , 7:44 pm

Edtech startup Teachmint has raised $16.5 million in Series A funding led by Learn Capital Venture Partners IV, LP.

Existing investors Lightspeed India Partners II, LLC and Better Capital also participated in the round, along with CM Ventures, AL Trust acting through its trustee Vistra ITCL (India) Limited, and MV Opportunities India Limited.

Vertices Partners represented Teachmint with a team led by Founder Partner Archana Khosla Burman along with Associate Managers Paul Albert and Vani Panicker and Associate Soumya Bansal.

Managing Partner Vinayak Burman provided strategic inputs.

Nishith Desai Associates advised Learn Capital with a team led by Partner Vaibhav Parikh along with Senior Member Amudavalli Kannan and Member Yashasvi Tripathi.

IndusLaw advised Lightspeed India with a team led by Partner Manish Gupta along with Principal Associate Ashish Ahluwalia and Associate Rashi Singh.

DSK Legal advised MV opportunities led by Partner Sharath Chandrashekhar along with Senior Associate Aravind K.

DSK Legal Vertices Partners IndusLaw Nishith Desai Associates Teachmint Learn Capital Venture