2024- A YEAR IN REVIEW: INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION AROUND THE WORLD

The year 2024 marked a period of significant developments in the field of international arbitration, driven by key legislative, institutional, and technological changes. In our latest hotline, our International Dispute Resolution & Investigation team examines these pivotal changes, with a spotlight on reforms in major arbitration hubs such as India, the United Kingdom, Singapore, Middle East, the United States of America, France and Japan. Building on these insights, the article also explores the reforms expected in 2025, each set to play a defining role in shaping the future of international dispute resolution.
